

Prop 207 And Arizona: What We Can Learn From Oregon

League Breakfast Discussion

In 2004, Oregon voters passed Measure 37, the first major initiative to require compensation for "regulatory takings." Like Proposition 207, Measure 37 has greatly limited the ability of cities and towns in Oregon to regulate land use. Three experts at the center of interpreting and implementing the Oregon law will be in Phoenix on February 5th to share their experiences with us.

Glenn Klein, City Attorney of Eugene Oregon and attorney with the firm of Harrang, Long, Gary and Rudnick P.C., Susan L. Muir, Planning & Development Director of Eugene Oregon and Lane Shetterly, Director of the Department of Land Conservation and Development for the State of Oregon, will be on hand for a discussion of the impact Measure 37 has had on cities and towns in Oregon and how this relates to Proposition 207 in Arizona.
