

2010 NLC Congressional City Conference Washington, D.C., March 13-17

The NLC 2010 Congressional City Conference is just over a month away. Listed below are three events planned specifically for the Arizona conference delegates.

1. The League will host our annual Arizona Reception during the Conference. All Arizona delegates, spouses and guests are invited to attend. The reception will take place:

Monday, March 15, 2010
5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
Marriott Wardman Park Hotel
Lincoln Room 3

2. US Senators John McCain and Jon Kyl will also host our traditional Q&A session for Arizona delegates during the conference. The continental breakfast meeting will take place:

Wednesday, March 17, 2010
US Capitol Visitors Center*
SVC Room 200/201
8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

 To locate the meeting room enter the Capitol Visitors Center (CVC) through the CVC entrance located on First Street, across from the Supreme Court (on the Capitol Grounds). Once through security, you will go down stairs one level and to the right towards the Lower Senate Appointments desk – there will be signs that point you to the Senate event space. You can also ask any office or red coat (tour guide) where the Lower Senate Appointments desk if you have questions.*

If you have specific topics you want to discuss at the meeting with our Senators please let Ken Strobeck know in advance at kstrobeck@azleague.org so he can brief their staff.

3. Congressman Harry E. Mitchell (Former Tempe Mayor and Past President of the League) has graciously offered to host an open house for all Arizona NLC Delegates to stop by his office and visit him and his staff. The reception will take place following the meeting with our US Senators:

Wednesday, March 17, 2010
9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.
Longworth House Office Building - Room 1410

Please note: if you plan on attending the Congressman Mitchell's open house, please RSVP to Matt Lore at mlore@azleague.org so we can send the count to his office.

If you are planning to set up city or individual meetings with your Congressman, we suggest you do so right away. Their schedules are always very full. If you are unable to meet with personally with your Representative, many cities have found a meeting with congressional staff very productive.

Ken Strobeck from the League will be attending the Conference. If you need to reach him at anytime you may call him on his cell phone (602) 501-4989.

If you have any questions before the event, please do not hesitate to contact us.
